

Executive Liability Insurance for the Biotechnology Industry

BIO-Monitor Executive Liability Program

For more than a decade, Monitor Liability Managers, LLC has had the privilege of serving as the preferred provider of Executive Liability Insurance protection for your industry through our direct affiliation with the Biotechnology Industry Organization (BIO), the international trade association for the biotechnology industry. This affiliation includes more than 35 state biotech associations (see reverse side).

We have extensive experience underwriting liability protection for biotechnology companies. This liability insurance includes:

- For publicly traded companies
  - Directors and Officers (D&O)
  - Employment Practices Liability (EPL)
- For privately held companies and nonprofit entities
  - Directors and Officers (D&O)
  - Employment Practices Liability (EPL)
  - Fiduciary Liability

The risk to your business is real and significant, including but not limited to:

- Antitrust violations
- Breach of fiduciary duty
- Securities fraud
- Unfair competition
- Discrimination
- Wrongful termination
- Harassment
- Retaliation

Monitor has the solutions to help manage those risks. Our liability programs are designed with the requirements of the innovative biotechnology industry in mind.
