Monitor Liability Managers, LLC Announces New Social Media Endorsement for Employment Practices Liability Insurance

ROLLING MEADOWS, IL, February 17, 2011 — Monitor Liability Managers, LLC (Monitor) today announced the introduction of a new social media endorsement for the employment practices liability (EPL) insurance policies it underwrites. The endorsement defines social media and workplace bullying, expands the definition of a wrongful act to include workplace bullying and offers new social media coverage under third party liability. Coverage is provided by W. R. Berkley Corporation member companies Admiral Insurance Company and Carolina Casualty Insurance Company, both of which are rated A+ (Superior) by A.M. Best Company.

“Monitor is a leader in defining social media in an EPL policy and to provide a sublimit for claims of defamation, libel or invasion of privacy of a third party occurring from an insured’s use of social media. This endorsement keeps the coverage in our policy current with trends in social media usage and eliminates any gray areas by defining what is covered,” said Sandra C. Nelson, president.

Additional information, including specific coverage details which govern the policy and contact information can be found at www.monitorliability.com/socialmedia.0.html.
